

Christian Cappelluti Memorial Scholarship Fund

Academic Year 2011-2012

The Christian Cappelluti Memorial Scholarship Fund was established on September 25, 1998 and restated and amended on January 1, 2002 by Franco Cappelluti and Adrianna Notari Cappelluti of Rome, Italy, in memory of their son, Christian Cappelluti. Christian Cappelluti died unexpectedly at 22. He was, in addition to being a Wake Forest student, a singer, songwriter, and guitarist who showed great promise. The purpose of the fund is to provide a scholarship or scholarships for undergraduate students attending Wake Forest who exhibit exceptional talent and achievement in the field of music.

John Jacob Eichhorn

Greensboro, NC

eichjj8@wfu.edu

Senior

Major: Music Performance and English

Mary Elizabeth Freitag

Chesterfield, MO

freime8@wfu.edu

Senior

Major: Music Performance and English

John Wile Kossler

Winston-Salem, NC

Major:

Cheng Liu

Zhejiang 310012,

liuc29@wfu.edu

Senior

Major: Finance and Music Performance

Cheng is involved with intramural soccer and an a cappella group called Innuendo. He is interested in studying Music and Business.

Jorge Junior Mendez Estrada

Kernersville, NC
mendjj8@wfu.edu
Senior

Major: Health & Exercise Science

Sara Elizabeth Spires

Mt Pleasant, SC
spirse9@wfu.edu

Major: Accountancy

Sara Spires is a senior majoring in accountancy. She is from Charleston, South Carolina. She plays clarinet in wind ensemble, orchestra, clarinet choir, and the athletic pep bands, where she is woodwind coordinator and clarinet music section leader. She is a brother of Kappa Kappa Psi, the Honorary Band Service Fraternity as well as Alpha Phi Omega, the Co-ed Service Fraternity. This year she was inducted into Omicron Delta Kappa, a national leadership honor society, and Beta Gamma Sigma, an international honor society for business education. She will complete a masters of accountancy program at Wake Forest. Upon graduation, Sara hopes to work at a Big Four accounting firm in Charlotte, North Carolina.

